

Computer Science Newsletter 7/9/18

Computer Science Advising Day: The Fall 2018 Computer Science Advising Day will take place on Friday, August 24, 2018. We will offer advising sessions for all students, please view the flier here: <http://cs.sfsu.edu/sites/default/files/AdvisingDayF18.pdf> for more information on location and times.

ExpressVPN Scholarship: The ExpressVPN Future of Privacy Scholarship was created to raise awareness of internet privacy and security. Applicants will submit a short essay on a provided topic for the chance to win a $5,000 cash prize. Submissions are due no later than August 31, 2018. More information about the opportunity can be found here: <https://www.expressvpn.com/expressvpn-scholarship>

Mission Economic Development Agency (MEDA) Software Instructor: An alum from our program has passed along the attached job opportunity with MEDA. MEDA provides free programs for the community, including their 'Mission Techies' program, which offers coding and hardware classes for their students. They are currently looking to hire a part-time Software Instructor (JavaScript-HTML-Github-jQuery-MEAN stack). More information about this opportunity is located here: <http://cs.sfsu.edu/sites/default/files/jobs/Instructor.pdf>. Please send resumes and cover letters to: Miguel Velasco @ mvelasco@medasf.org

College of Business Innovation and Entrepreneurship Program: The Innovation and Entrepreneurship Fellows Program is designed to prepare students to become global leaders as they develop the skills to become entrepreneurs by launching a successful business. More information about this opportunity, including date/time for an information session, can be found here: <http://cob.sfsu.edu/innovation-fellows>

Jen's Last day in the Office: My last day in the Computer Science office and at San Francisco State University will be Tuesday, July 10th. It has been a pleasure working with the department and I wish you all of the best in your future endeavors. Moving forward, please reach out to Stephanie Kong (stephaniekong@sfsu.edu) and CSgrad@sfsu.edu if you need assistance.
